

TALENTNET END USER LICENSE AGREEMENT PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

Use of TalentNet assumes agreement to the end user license requirements set out by the University of Ottawa (owner of the Intellectual Property contained in TalentNet), and the Canadian Standards Association (owner of the software platform ).

AUTHORIZED USE

The University of Ottawa grants to you a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable, revocable license to access and use TalentNet for personal, non-profit, or commercial use. Any use of TalentNet not specifically permitted under this agreement is strictly prohibited.

RESTRICTIONS

Users may not

- copy, translate, reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, modify or create derivative works based on TalentNet or any portion of it.
- circumvent any technology used by CSA or its licensors to govern access to and use of TalentNet
- rent, lease, or sublicense any of TalentNet
- use TalentNet in any way that violates the spirit of free public access to TalentNet

TalentNet contains its own trade-marks, service marks, graphics, and logos ("Marks"), as well as those of University of Ottawa and CSA. Users are not granted any right or license with respect to these Marks.

PRIVACY POLICY

TalentNet will collect information about player behaviour and performance within the learning game ('learner information') and associate that information with the account information the user provides to TalentNet at registration ('account information'). TalentNet is solely responsible for the collection and use of all learner information and account information. All such information will be held in strict confidentiality in compliance with ethics standards set out by the University of Ottawa.